EDITORIAL FLINGS

The bandits who robbed the New York Globe were sufficiently sophisticated to tackle the fellow who was rushing to bank with the deposits coming from the counting room instead of slamming the cashier when he was paying off the editorial force.

In sundry cities in Kentucky it is almost as easy to get a drink as it was before prohibition, but it isn't as easy to reach the convalescent stage as it used to be to reach home afoot and fit a latchkey into a key-hole moving obliquely in several directions.

When age begins to creep upon a man he begins to wear rubber shoes and exercise caution. At the same period of life the up-to-date woman begins to wear extreme sport clothes and exercise discretion as to what shall be the color of her hair for the rest of her life.

Charlie Gilsey, the Paris philosopher, says one must kiss a girl on the nap of the neck to avoid danger of tooth-or-mouth infections. A great plan for the stage lover, who always makes love to the heroine the nap of the neck to avoid danger that both may face the audience.

Now when the first robin appears in the press the fields are all bear and there's snow more or less. But robins like cherries, and we must agree it does come in handy—that famed old cherry tree!

Next we'll have bustles and nut-ton chop sleeves like grandma used to wear. But don't think that granny will wear 'em in 1922. She'll continue to bounce around kewed up like some flapper's niece, even if the rest of the ladies dress dignifiedly and silly.

A Kentucky father was fined $5.00 and costs for "biffing on the nose" a daughter who called him a 1910 model because he objected to her painting her lips and cheeks, powdering her nose, pulling out her eyebrows with tweezers, bobbing her hair, and a few dozen other feminine fads, also going out for a walk with unbuckled goshes. But the judge saved the dignity of the court by observing that the case is not one calling for the opinion of the court as to "flappers."

Nobody but the late Sir William Sullivan Gilbert could write a libretto based on the State-rocking question as to whether the Darwinian theory of evolution is to be taught in the University of Kentucky. A long speech, in verse, by a Kentucky legislator, asserting that the theory is "a grave insult, gentlemen, to the justly famed beauty, gentlemen, of the beauty of the noble women, gentlemen, of this justly famed State," would make, for one hearer, at least, a pleasing evening.

The times are out of joint, There are only two Smiths in Congress now.

Apples were not selling at present prices when Eve tempted Adam with one.

GET YOUR COPY IN EARLY

One of the many annoyances the newspaper is subjected to is the habit of many advertisers waiting until the last minute to send in their copy for advertising. THE NEWS has had and is still having its share of this. Many months ago we tried to put into execution a plan for having copy for changes of advertisements brought or sent to the office on Saturday or Wednesday. It worked for a while. Then the inevitable happened. The advertisers who had been so prompt fell from grace, and began to lag. Then the printer began to cuss. Now—

If I were a merchant I wouldn't wait until the last minute before handing in my copy for the current issue of THE NEWS to the printer, for the printer is a human being as well as a mechanical institution. He can't do the miraculous thing, although he can come about as close to doing it as the next man.

An eleventh hour ad has to be set up in an eleventh hour manner; that is, the printer, for the want of time, must sling it together in the quickest way possible, without due regard to proper display and well-balanced proportions. Therefore, it follows that the merchant is not getting good service that he would get had his copy been received in due time.

The merchant who is habitually behind with his ad copy is hardly a welcome guest in the print shop. He gets on the printer's nerves, with the result that the printer is "out of sorts" mentally; while physically he feels as if he would like to "pi" something. In this state of mind he can't do his best.

While the printer is setting the eleventh-hour ad he is also saying something under his breath that might lose the merchant an advertiser if he but knew what the printer was thinking of and talking to himself about.

LINCOLN'S GRANDFATHER BELIEVED BURIED IN STATE

Efforts that are to be made at once to establish the facts regarding the death of Abraham Lincoln's grandfather, for whom the martyred president was named, may reveal that the first Abraham Lincoln is buried in Jefferson county, it developed at a meeting of the Filson Club, in Louisville. The Rev. Dr. William E. Barton, pastor of the First Congregational church, Oak Park, Ill., who is engaged in research into the Lincoln family's history, has established fairly definitely, his letter said, that the first Abraham Lincoln was killed in the latter part of the eighteenth century in an Indian fight on the banks of the South Fork of Floyd's Creek, and was buried near the scene of his death. This is thought to have been in the southwest corner of Jefferson county, or perhaps, across the line in either Oldham or Bullitt counties.

THIN, FLAT HAIR GROWS LONG, THICK AND ABUNDANT

"Dandierine" costs only 35 cents a bottle. One application ends all dandruff, stops itching and falling hair, and in a few moments, you have double the beauty of your hair. It will appear a mass, so soft, lustrous, and easy to do up. But what will please you most will be after a few weeks use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair growing all over the scalp. "Dandierine" is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. This delightful, stimulating tonic helps thin, lifeless faded hair to grow long, thick, heavy and luxuriant. (T-1f)

WILL KEEP THE "FLAT WHEEL DOLLARS"

The Junction City correspondence of The Danville Advocate publishes the following regarding a former Paris boy: "Louis Kriener, cashier of the First State Bank, is the only person in Boyle county and possibly in this section of Kentucky who succeeded in securing two of the new silver dollars just out of the mints. All of these dollars which had not been sent out of the Federal Reserve Banks have been ordered back to the Treasury in Washington City. From there they will be sent to the various mints and melted and re-coined into a more perfect coin, according to dispatches from the capital. It is claimed that these new dollars are thicker on one side than the other and therefore cannot be stacked. Mr. Kriener has just two of the new dollars, which he will keep as souvenirs."

It has occurred to you, of course, that some of these infant republics need spanking.

There was once a man who made money out of a get-rich-quick scheme. He operated it.

SIR HARRY LAUDER CALLS FOR HELP

Noted Scotch Comedian In Letter To Col. Fred Levy Endorses The American Jewish Relief Committee Campaign.

Kentuckians Are Urged To Join The Rest of The Country In Contributing Funds For The Relief of Starving And Destitute Jewish People In Europe.

Sir Harry Lauder, the great Scotch comedian, is firmly of the opinion that in helping the stricken people of Europe, Americans will also be helping themselves. Upon a recent visit to Louisville, Sir Harry wrote a letter to his friend, Col. Fred Levy, State Chairman for Kentucky of the American Jewish Relief Committee, endorsing heartily the efforts of that organization to raise $150,000 in the state for the starving orphans and men and women of Central and Eastern Europe. Sir Harry declared that it is as much the business of the non-Jew as it is of the Jew that Europe gets on her feet at the earliest possible moment.

While the campaign in Kentucky is being conducted by Jewish people and while the appeal for aid is made to them direct, all who desire to give are urged to do so and are assured that their contributions will be gratefully acknowledged.

Sir Harry's letter follows: "Dear Col. Levy:

"I am so impressed on just learning that you, as well as a great many others, are devoting valuable time to conducting a campaign here for relief of the many destitute Europeans, that I wondered if it would not help your organization to know that the kindness of heart impelling busy men to sacrifice time and give large sums for this purpose, is bound to be repaid a thousandfold by the benefits this country will derive if the much needed help at this time will enable Europe to get back to normal.

"I do not know whether you have ever heard any one else express this thought which stands out vividly in my mind, but it seems to me that if the business men of the United States would stop to realize that Europe is the market of the world, and must be put right before this country can it self get right, that you would have no difficulty in your task. The man who claims he is not interested in the welfare of these people is simply blind to the fact that the secret of the depression he is complaining of here is found in the dead stillness of starving, homeless and destitute Europe, which only craves a chance to get back on her feet. Poor Europe!

"I have recently seen conditions throughout Europe and I speak from first hand knowledge. We have finished with battleships, now we need friendships—the brotherhood of man! "I wish you great success, and for the good of both Europe and the United States don't fail. I know Scotchmen don't know the word failure—he Scotch on this occasion.

"Cordially yours,
"HARRY LAUDER."

JEWISH PEOPLE TO STAGE CAMPAIGN

KENTUCKIANS WILL RAISE MONEY TO HELP STARVING AND DESTITUTE PEOPLE OF EUROPE.

Col. Fred Levy of Louisville And Chairman of State Campaign And Irvin Marcus Is State Director —Headquarters in Louisville.

During the latter part of March, the Jewish people of Kentucky are to join in the great campaign now being carried on by the American Jewish Relief Committee for the relief of the stricken Jewish people of Europe.

Since the great world war started the Jewish people of this country have raised practically $50,000,000 for this work. Every cent of the money has been spent. According to the best figures of men who have just returned from personal inspection of conditions in Central and Eastern Europe, $14,000,000 more must be supplied at once of the stricken Jews there are given adequate aid.

Already enthusiastic and effective campaigns have been carried on from Maine to California, and from Minnesota to Texas. Reports from these campaigns show that never before have the Jewish people of this country rallied to the cry of their stricken brothers and sisters in Europe as they are doing today.

Every state quota has been reached and passed—a most remarkable showing. Cities in which it was predicted that the campaign appeal would find no response are surpassing the fondest hopes of the campaign managers. Chicago's quota of $1,000,000 was raised to $1,836,000 and oversubscribed. St. Louis, Milwaukee, St. Joseph, Mo., Kansas City, Los Angeles, Baltimore, and other cities have exceeded their quotas.

Kentucky's campaign organization is in the hands of Colonel Fred Levy of Louisville, Chairman. Irvin Marcus of Louisville is director of the state drive. Headquarters are in complete operation on the third floor of the Keith National Theatre Building in Louisville.

BETTER BUSINESS CONDITIONS PREDICT

Better business conditions in the country continuing throughout the year were foreseen by Eugene Myer, Jr., manager director of the War Finance Corporation, in an address at a luncheon of the New York Republican Club. Every concrete and tangible pledge of evidence, he asserted, pointed to an existing and prospective gradual improvement in the general situation.

"Better financial conditions and the recent stabilization of the markets for agricultural products," he said, "furnish a sound basis for the business recovery already well under way and for the confidence that the improvement, possibly with temporary reactions, will continue throughout the year. The improvement at home is supplemented by the return toward normal of some of the important foreign exchanges, which warrants the hope of the stabilization of our foreign commerce. The outlook for agriculture, for the railroads and for business generally may be viewed more hopefully than for a long time past."

"It is to be hoped," he said, "that the expenditure of the railroads with the revolutionary effect of rate increases on the movement of traffic will result in a more elastic handling of the rate situation by the railroads under the supervision of the interstate commerce commission."

SEARCH SUCCESSFUL AFTER NINETEEN YEARS

A nineteen-year search for a missing man, which covered Europe, Asia and Australia and twice crossed the Atlantic into America, was ended when Mrs. Ida Shapiro, of Chicago, was notified that her cousin, Bernard Friedman, had been located in New York.

Friedman, when 12 years old, wandered away from his home in Lund, Sweden, according to Mrs. Shapiro. His parents spent much money in an effort to trace him, but after several years of unsuccessful search they died of grief. Mrs. Shapiro took up the search.

She followed the trail through Europe into Asia and then to Australia. Ten years ago Mrs. Shapiro came to America, married and settled in Chicago, but still continued the search. An advertisement in a New York newspaper finally led Friedman to a younger sister there and the Shapiros were notified. Friedman is expected to arrive in Chicago within a few days.

It will soon be time for the baseball umpires to begin to do whatever it is that they do in winter.

We sometimes wonder how the great men of the world amuse themselves before golf was invented.
